

GRAND TRUNK TRAIN WRECKED BY THUGS

ENGINE, CARS ARE PILED IN MICHIGAN DITCH

LA PEER, Mich. — (By Associated Press) — A sheriff's posse and railroad detectives were searching the countryside today for three men who fled from the scene early this morning of the derailment of the first section of Grand Trunk passenger train number five. The men were believed by authorities to be the train wreckers who removed a rail near Elba, three miles from here, with the result that the entire train, except one Pullman car, plunged into the ditch. Three passengers were injured seriously.

A flagman saw the trio running into the woods from the scene of the wreck as he went to the rear to place warning signals.

CLUES FOUND

That the train had been deliberately wrecked was established, officials said, by the finding of track workers' tools at the point of derailment. Railroad men identified the tools as having been stolen from the Elba section house two days ago.

The engineer observed from a distance that a rail had been removed and was able to slacken the speed of the train before it reached the spot. The engine turned over three times as it hurtled into the ditch and this diminished the speed of the coaches that they merely left the rails and toppled over. The track was torn up for a distance of more than 100 yards.

The injured, two passengers and the fireman, were brought here for treatment. The fireman, severely treated, probably could not recover, physicians said.

LIMA CAPITAL INVESTED IN BIG INDUSTRY

One of the biggest deals in manufacturing circles in Allen-co in years was announced Saturday, the absorption of the Delphos Manufacturing company by The New Delphos Manufacturing company, capitalized at $300,000 by A. W. Wheatley, John W. Roby, H. I. Blank, Walter S. Jackson, T. Reed Dunlap and others of Lima and Delphos.

A. W. Wheatley, president of The Wheatley company, stated that Lima and Delphos capital is interested in the proposition. The plant is one of the largest in Ohio, located along the Pennsylvania company railroad tracks at the east side of Delphos.

Patent pump oil cans, corn poppers, gem pans and a host of other articles of necessity and of novelty in the metal line is manufactured. The monster plant is now running full force and has large orders booked ahead.

O. T. Ross, manager of the plant under the old corporation, will retire, it was stated Saturday. Mrs. Perkins, for many years engaged in connection with the management, will remain with the new company.

The organization of the new company has not been completed. The plant will not be removed from Delphos.

SCHOOL SUPPORT IS URGED

CINCINNATI — (By Associated Press) — The importance of local financial support for elementary schools was emphasized in the address of Professor W. C. Bagley, Columbia University, which closed the convention of the Southwestern Ohio Teachers' Association today. Dr. Bagley reiterated the statement that "the tendency toward retrenchment is the greatest danger facing education today."

"The whole hope of the world lies in elementary education," Dr. Bagley said. "Only a few states give financial aid to it's investment. If the local community fails in its maintenance of the elementary schools, then the nation fails."

"No community has ever reached the maximum of its investment in education. Every penny expended brings a larger return than a similar amount spent for any other purpose."

Lima Concern Locates In New Plant

The Lima Sheet Metal Products Company is now located in its new modern plant at North Charles-st and the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks.

During the present week a corps of workmen has been busy installing machinery in the new structure. This has all been completed and next week will see the plant going full blast in the production of sheet metal products.

The new building was authorized by the board of directors January 1st of this year, but construction was delayed by the conservative board of directors until July 1st on its belief that building materials could be obtained at cheaper prices.

During the early part of June bids were received for the construction of the plant and the Lima Construction company was awarded the contract. The heating and plumbing systems were installed by Williams Bros. and P. M. Hulsken drafted the plans.

Only Lima concerns were given contracts.

The building is so constructed that additions can be conveniently made at a minimum expense. The main part is 50 by 360 feet with three wings of 40 by 60 feet.

When the motors begin to hum Monday morning the dreams of one of the city's most influential men will become a reality.

This is Charles L. Ackerman, president of the Lima Sheet Metal Products company. Two and a half years ago Ackerman started the concern on East Wayne-st with a capital of $10,000 with three sheet metal workers.

Business picked up steadily and the capital was increased to $50,000 by the sale of shares to Lima business men who believed in Ackerman and his undertaking.

This growth kept up and the fact that he succeeded is evidenced by the immense amount of orders received.

FOCH GUEST OF PRESIDENT AT LUNCHEON

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Official and unofficial Washington was eager to express to the full today its sentiment of heartfelt welcome to Marshal Foch, of France, military master who led the way to allied victory in the great war. Paying a brief preliminary visit to the national capital, enroute to Kansas City as guest of the American Legion at its annual convention there, Marshal Foch, who was greeted enthusiastically on his arrival here last night from New York, faced a busy program today of official calls and courtesies, including a luncheon at the White House as the guest of President Harding.

After being received earlier in the day by the president, the French general planned today his respects to Secretary Denby at the navy department and Acting Secretary Wainwright at the war department. He will also receive calls at his hotel from General Pershing in his official capacity as general of the armies and chief of staff; Admiral Cointz, chief of operations of the navy, and other high officers of the army and navy.

AMERICAN LEGION WOMEN OPEN CONVENTION TUESDAY

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — (By Associated Press) — While the men who made America's army and navy during the world war are occupied here next week with the third national convention of the American Legion, wives, sisters, mothers and sweethearts of many of these same men expect to be busy with a convention of their own—the first national convention of the women's auxiliary of the American Legion.

Indications are that, while the women's convention will not be as large as the men's, it will have quite as many matters to engage its members.

WILL SELECT NAME

Its principal purpose is to perfect organization of the auxiliary. It will also select a definite and official name. Some members favor calling it by its present title—the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion. Others are in favor of designating the organization as "The Women of the American Legion."

Qualifications for membership are expected to be drawn up, policies outlined, and national officers elected.

The woman's organization owes much of its strength to the work of Miss Pauline Curnick, national organizer and director. Legion officials say. She will preside at the opening session of the women's convention Tuesday morning, November 1.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

The Rev. Dr. Burris A. Jenkins of this city, will give the invocation. National Commander John G. Emery will then open the convention and Admiral Beatty, who was made an earl of the British realm for the part he played in the battle of Julland, and Lieut. Gen. Baron Jacques, of Belgium, will speak. The convention will adjourn at noon to give the women an opportunity to watch the Legion parade. A dinner in honor of Lady Beatty, the British admiral's American wife, for Mrs. John G. Emery, wife of the national commander of the Legion, and other distinguished women guests will be given that evening.

DONOVAN, WILLIS DENIED RETRIAL

Judge Becker Rules Against Alleged Fett Robberies

TAKE CASES TO HIGH COURT

George Donovan and Joe Willis will not be given new trials in common pleas court, on the grounds of newly-discovered evidence.

Judge F. C. Becker overruled motion for new trials for both in court Saturday morning. Unless the supreme court intercedes in their behalf, Donovan and Willis will be forced to serve out their sentences of three years in the Ohio penitentiary.

Legal counsel for the two men was just ready to file a motion to admit the case to the supreme court, when he claimed he found new evidence which ought to grant the men a new trial in common pleas court.

AFFIDAVITS FILED

This was presented in the form of several affidavits, in which others were charged with the crime. One of these affidavits was sworn to by John Houston, now under indictment here on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Judge Becker carefully examined the affidavits and their contents following the hearing Friday.

Testimony was offered at the hearing Friday afternoon, to show reason why the affidavits were filed.

Counsel for the men declared he would proceed in higher court in an attempt to clear his clients.

CONVICTED BY JURY

Donovan and Willis were convicted by a jury in common pleas court of the robbery of the Fett brothers, bachelors, near Bluffton, on the night of May 13, last. The amount of $2,500 in Liberty bonds and $85 in money was taken.

Donovan and Willis were arrested here the afternoon of May 21, after a running gun battle in which police engaged with alleged bank bandits on the south side. At that time Raleigh Townsend, alleged member of the gang, was killed.

John Mason, also convicted of the robbery, was taken to Columbus in June to enter upon a sentence in the penitentiary for his part in the robbery. Mason was arrested at the same time Donovan and Willis were taken.

The expense budget recently submitted by several program committees indicated Saturday that the celebration will go over the top at minimum of expense. No other city in northwestern Ohio will stage a demonstration such as is planned for Lima, members of the committees said.

Every ex-service man will be expected to get out his uniform and be in line of march when the big parade starts in motion at 11:30 a. m., Armistice Day. Is the text of general orders issued by the chairman of the executive committee.

With the naming of a grand marshal of the day, and the routing of the parade practically every detail of the Armistice Day celebration will be concluded, it was announced Saturday.

HEAVY GUARD IS THROWN ABOUT COURT

DEDHAM Mass. — (By Associated Press) — A motion for a new trial for Niccoli Sacco and Bartholomew Vanzetti, convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of a paymaster and his guard at South Braintree in April, 1930, was heard in the Norfolk-superior court today.

Police guards, mounted on horses, on motorcycles and afoot, were thrown about the court house in numbers and inside the building a heavy guard was on duty. Deputy sheriffs and local police guarded the entrances to the building with instructions to search all spectators for weapons. Riot guns were held in reserve.

The case, which has been the subject of bomb, speaking and marching demonstrations by radicals in the capitals of Europe and South America, came again before Judge Webster Thayer, who presided over the jury trial at which the defendants were found guilty. Sentence of the men has not been imposed, pending determination of today's motion for retrial, and pending action also on exceptions to rulings and evidence which counsel for the defense have been given until December 1 to prepare.

Marquis A. Ferrante, Italian consul at Boston, accompanied by Vice Consul Silvio Vitale, appeared as spectators shortly before the opening of the hearing. Mr. Ferrante said he would make no statement.

SHORT RATIONS FOR PRISONERS OF CITY AS FUNDS DWINDLE

As host to numerous prisoners who have been held for petty offenses during the past month, the city of Lima has served 301 meals to involuntary guests at the police station.

This is the largest number of meals served in several months. Turnkey Abe Vinegar, who has been acting in the combined capacity of chef and head waiter, is considering petitioning council for a cookstove if the rush continues.

The allowance for food, formerly 25 cents a meal, has been cut to 15 cents. The cut was made, it is stated, because of insufficient funds.

Fifteen cents a meal is too small, officers state, as for that sum the city can only serve a cup of coffee and a sandwich. For this reason, whenever possible, prisoners are taken to the county jail, where the menu is more complete.

E. C. SWEENEY APPOINTED AS MEMBER POLICE FORCE

E. C. Sweeney, 254 S. Pine-st., was appointed Saturday to fill a vacancy existing in the police department. The appointment was announced by Safety Director D. W. Dorris, who stated that Sweeney headed the list of eligibles sent to him by the civil service commission.

Sweeney is a former employee of the Ohio Electric, and weighs 190 pounds.

A vacancy has existed on the police force for upward of a month, due to the transfer of Noah Berry to the fire department.

Director Dorris announces that the police force is up to its authorized strength.

No further additions will be made to the force at present. Chief O. J. Roush recently stated that the department was handicapped by a lack of officers. He declared that 10 additional men are needed to cope with crime, caused by unemployment.

Mayor F. A. Burkhardt addressed the annual meeting of members of St. Mark Lutheran church in Ada, Friday night, on "Citizenship." One of the largest gatherings in years was reported in attendance.

COAL MEN'S CONSPIRACY IS CHARGED

INDIANAPOLIS — (By Associated Press) — Affidavits designed to establish the existence of an unlawful conspiracy between union coal miners and operators were introduced today in the federal court hearing on an application for a temporary injunction restricting the United Mine Workers of America in its efforts to organize the West Virginia coal field, centering around Mingo county.

The Bonbright Coal Corporation, in seeking the injunction on behalf of three score West Virginia operators, also asked that any order, if granted, set aside wage agreements between the union and operators in organized fields throughout the country. Judge A. B. Sanderson, presiding at the hearing, sought to conclude the case today, but counsel in the case was doubtful whether all evidence could be completed as the defendants wished to introduce numerous affidavits which they said would disprove contentions of the complainant that an unlawful combination existed between the operators and the union.

MILK SERVICE HERE IS IMPROVED, MAYOR SAYS

Lima's daily milk supply is rapidly improving as a result of monthly tests being conducted by the city board of health in conformity with recent state legislation and requirements of the state food and dairy department. Mayor Burkhardt declared Saturday.

"Dairymen serving Lima consumers have shown marked improvement in methods of delivery and quality of milk delivered here," said the mayor. "Thru constant co-operation with the board of health and monthly tests conducted by City Milk Inspector Miss Catherine Riley, the percentage of purity in the milk supply has been materially advanced," he said.

Recent legislation places severe penalties on dairymen who fail to comply with laws of sanitation and cleanliness in handling milk and dairy farm produce, it was declared.

BIG BALLOON, FLYING LOW AND FAST, PASSED OVER CITY, SATURDAY

A monster balloon, believed to be one of a number of army dirigibles which were scheduled to leave McCook field, Dayton, at daybreak Saturday for flying test, passed over Lima about 9:45 a. m. Saturday.

The balloon was sailing due north and flying low, according to observers. About 100 feet of rope was dangling from the basket. It passed directly over the business section, a little to the east of Main-st.

Fire Chief Mack, one of several persons who observed the balloon said it was sailing rapidly and passed over and disappeared within a few minutes.

OLD REMINISCENCES COME UP AT MEET OF HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The first fall meeting of the Allen-co Historical Society was held in Memorial Hall Friday night. A number of veteran members were present.

Several new relics of days gone by and interesting stories of Lima years ago occupied the informal get-together session. Meetings will be held on the last Friday evening of each month during the winter, it was announced Saturday.

An old silver scolded fire bugle, presented to Pacific Company No. 1 September 28, 1865, at the conclusion of a water throwing demonstration by the Lima department's steamers and the presence of A. S. Bowers, William Brees and Harold Cunningham, who were present when the horn was given the fire fighters, featured the program Friday night.

Stolzenbach Bakery Vehicle
Smashed at Spencerville

A spectacular accident in Spencerville, in which damage approximating $1,200 was done to two motor trucks, occurred late Friday when a new White truck owned by the Stolzenbach Baking company of Lima was rammed and hurled into a ditch by a nitro-glycerine truck belonging to the American glycerine company. Both drivers escaped injury.

The accident occurred as E. P. Smith, driver of the bakery truck was piloting his machine alongside a deep sewer trench in Spencerville. J. L. Lemley, operating the nitro-glycerine truck, skidded around a corner from the opposite direction, lost control of his car and crashed head-on into the front wheels of the Stolzenbach machine.

Both trucks were practically demolished, damage to both being estimated at between $1,200 to $1,400. The fact that the nitro truck was empty probably saved the entire village from destruction, it was declared Saturday.

LIMA LEGIONNAIRES OFF FOR KANSAS CITY MEET

Lima's delegation to the American Legion convention hopped off for Kansas City Saturday noon. Fifteen Lima men are making the jaunt to the Missouri valley metropolis.

At Chicago the Lima party will make a stop over Sunday, resuming their journey and arriving at their destination Monday morning.

Ohio will send approximately 1,000 men to the convention. A number of important questions are to be considered. Among them may be the problem of participating in politics, which was deferred at Cleveland by a narrow margin.

Those from Lima going to the convention are: Dr. E. D. Sinks, national delegate, Robert Wilcox, Dean Patton, Allen Brady, Walter Noble, Walter Rowlands, Herbert Rudy, Frank Crumrine, Jerry Madigan, Harry Stoller, H. C. Miller, F. M. LIMA THEATRES

THE long-awaited Rex Ingram production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" is coming to the Sigma Theatre beginning Sunday. This is the picture that cost Metro $1,000,000 to make, and from all accounts the $1,000,000 was well spent, as critics agree that all other efforts at production on a grand scale have been surpassed and record runs have been made in New York, Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Los Angeles and other cities where the picture has been previously shown.

The appeal of the story itself has already been proved through the success of the novel by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, upon which the photodrama is founded. Its sale throughout the world runs into the millions, but millions more will probably have it revealed to them the first time through the medium of the screen production. This production is reported to have followed faithfully the epic tale of human passion against the background of the Great War as related by Ibañez.

Honest Advertising

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher honestly advertised, honestly placed before the public, and from which he honestly expects to receive his reward.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

LIMA 2000 YEARS HENCE

WOULDN'T it be interesting, if you could return to earth and visit Lima 2000 years hence!

You have watched Lima's growth, tried to guess which suburb would develop next or where the center of the shopping district would move in another 50 years.

You have heard old residents tell almost unbelievable stories of the old days in Lima and the changes that have been wrought by time.

Yet those changes are nothing to what the future will bring.

WHAT will Lima be like in, say the year 4000?

Hard to answer. But eventually, if history repeats, our city will inevitably crumble into the dust. It may take thousands of years but all cities, all civilizations, ultimately vanish.

Suppose you could turn back the clock and visit Babylon, Nineveh, Thebes or Tyre in the days before they were depopulated and turned into ruins with passing of the civilizations which they crowned.

You'd talk to the inhabitants and they'd give you a great laugh if you suggested that "even this may pass away."

In the "Arabian Nights" you read of the glories of ancient Bagdad. At the height of its power Bagdad was as big as Chicago of today. Overnight came Chinese armies, beheaded the 800,000 inhabitants who had not fled, and built a pyramid of the heads. Bagdad crumbled into the desert sands—so desolate that it was never rebuilt, the new Bagdad rising across the river.

THE men who are erecting the giant Bush Building in London, England, believe that in a few thousand years London may be a deserted ruin, with archeologists excavating to learn the habits and customs of the people of 1921.

So, deep down in the concrete foundation of the Bush Building, they are constructing a sealed chamber in which will be deposited articles typical of our present civilization.

Acting on the advice of H. G. Wells, the articles will include a safety razor, a cotton reel, a bottle of pickles, a mail-order catalog, some patent medicines, a typewriter, a sewing machine, a railroad time-table, a moving picture machine and film.

Archeologists of the year 4000 or later, digging under the Bush Building, will scratch their heads bewilderedly and try to guess what these crude articles might have been used for by the barbarians of 1921.

Wonder what they'll think when they dig up Lima?

ODD

A MOUNTAINEER, Zeke Anderson, escaped from the convict road camp at Rockcastle, Ky., last spring. He went home, raised a crop on his farm to feed his family this winter. The crop harvested, he returns to prison voluntarily.

A man with that sense of social responsibility is not a criminal at heart. Prison reform is worth while when it reclaims men like Zeke Anderson. Unfortunately, they are in the minority.

JEALOUSY

A MAN, accused of bigamy, strolls into the prosecutor's office in Kansas City, a wife on each arm. Contrary to the age-old rule, there was no antagonism between the wives. They were amiable, discussing terms of settlement.

How many American wives could act like that, in company with "the other woman?"

Students of the psychology of jealousy will see in this case a throw-back to the days when a man had as many wives as he could support. Women stood for it. They had to, because it was part of the game to keep a woman submissive by keeping her dependent—and the game's still played that way.

YOUR SON

EVERY father, as soon as the doctor announces that "It's a boy," begins nursing a hope that son will follow in father's footsteps.

It is a great comfort, in old age, for John Blank to see "John Blank & Sons" nailed over the door of his shop. It means that the institution which father toiled so hard to build up will live on after his death.

A machinist may earnestly want his son to "get an education and have a better chance," but deep down in his heart he knows that he would be extremely happy if son became the finest tool maker in the world.

No doubt Thomas Lincoln, poor farmer, hoped his son would become a rich farmer. Instead, Abraham Lincoln became president.

Lawyer John Adams, probably urged his son, who became a president, to study law.

Son, all thru his boyhood, is eagerly watched by father to see if he displays any of the particular brand of ability that pa turned into a means of livelihood.

FOR 101 years the Rev. Andrew Broadus has occupied the pulpit of the Salem Baptist church at Sparta, Va. The first Andrew Broadus, preaching in this church from 1820 until his death in 1848, was succeeded by his son, another Andrew Broadus. In turn, his son inherited the pulpit.

Now there is a fourth Andrew Broadus, son of the present pastor. So far, he has not showed much inclination to take up the work when his father retires from the ministry.

You would have to travel a good many days to find a similar instance of heredity.

Many businesses, built up by father and sons years ago, are still operating under the old firm name. But control of the business has passed into the hands of outsiders, frequently the family not being represented at all.

IT may be disappointing to a father for his son to turn to a totally different line of work. But, after all, it is a wise provision of the scheme of things.

If sons always followed father in the same business or line of work, the world would run in a rut. Many lines of activity would become overcrowded, one father's place being taken by three sons, later by nine grandsons, still later by 27 great-grandsons. None would be available to fill new positions that are opened yearly by new fields of activity.

The wonder of what your son will become is one of the most thrilling mysteries of your lifetime.

Kids' cussedness on Halloween and during several nights preceding that annual occasion, isn't of the same brand that was enjoyed by the youth of long ago, when the opportunities and temptations for over-turning small buildings were more numerous. Besides, there are few gates now available to be carried away.

It is perhaps timely to observe that all public officials will likely manage to pull thru the unemployment period without suffering much distress.

Despite the fact that President Harding is becoming an interstate cadabout, Governor Davis seeking honors as the prize vacationist, and Mayor Burkhart filling numerous speaking engagements and staging stunts elsewhere, the old world manages to wiggle and wobble along.

A Lima woman educator says that the best type of woman in public life is one who does not talk too much and does not jump at conclusions. In that case, girls, there's no political future for you.

In Germany, women's hats are classed as luxuries. We've seen a lot of 'em on the heads of women in Lima that look like necessities.

THE PINE TREE AND THE MATCHES

I journeyed, and I came into a great forest of tall pine trees. And men were at work cutting them down. And not far away was a sawmill that sawed the trees into lumber.

And they sawed down a great pine, and it fell with a mighty shout that woke the echoes of the forest.

And I said, I am a lover of trees, and I could almost as easily murder my father as cut down a tree so fine and tall as that. Yet I know that it must be done; and it may be that yonder tree will be cut into lumber for a temple of worship, or a hall of justice, or a happy home.

And the foreman spoke unto me, saying, This tree will be cut up for the making of matches.

And I said, Thou mightest make matches out of the chips and the splinters of it, but the tree itself would make matches enough to set the world on fire.

And he said, All the lumber which thou seest at the mill, and all the saw-logs that are beside the mill, and all the trees that these men are cutting, yes, and every tree in this vast forest is for the making of matches.

Then I said to think of those monarchs of the forest casting down their crowns and tumbling from their thrones to light cigarettes.

But I considered that there be other and more honorable uses of matches, and that so great a tree would not give us the without serving a noble purpose.

And I began to think less unkindly of this match business. And I thought of my own life and of the lives of other men, into how many splinters they are divided.

And I said within myself that I had never been able to make of my life one single, solid, undivided contribution to any heroic achievement, but that it had been cut up into matchwood and kindling by the exigencies of the daily demands upon my strength and time.

Yea, what is this Parable but a Spinel, with the end dipped in the crucible of the Personality of him who writeth it, that peradventure it may kindle a kindred glow in the heart of some one else who hath seemed to himself to fritter away his life in trivial duties, with no opportunity for conspicuous and heroic deeds?

Now this is my message unto all such: If thou hast lighted the lamp of hope in the humblest life; if thou hast put a torch into the hand of a child that he might walk aright down the path of temptation; if thou hast set in the window of thine own soul, where it is visible unto men, a candle lighted by a spark of thy own conviction or experience, so that any life hath been guided aright; if thou hast kindled into new warmth the flame of love within the hearth of any cold and troubled home; if thou hast "trained the milk of human kindness in the cup of any human being, then thank God that He hath permitted thee to be cut up into matches.

TOO WEAK TO WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Quinly's Health. Now She Does Her Housework

Shelbyville, Mo.—"I was only able to do light housework because for months my periods were excessive. I had seen your medicine extensively advertised and thought I would give it a fair trial. I took about eight boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets according to directions and I feel like a different woman. I have not taken any medicine during the past three months and I believe my ailment is cured. I am now able to do all my housework and attend to my poultry and garden. If you feel that my testimonial will benefit anyone you are welcome to use it in your advertisements."—Mrs. L. D. Quinly, R. F. D. No. 2, Shelbyville, Mo.

DID CARPENTIER FALL OR WAS HE PUSHED? THE COMEDY OF A JERSEY GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION

By WESTBROOK PEGLER
JERSEY CITY, N. J.—The Hudson-co grand jury of Jersey City is faithfully trying to ascertain what caused Georges Carpentier to do a nose-dive in the ring at Boyle's thirty acres on the afternoon of July 2 last.
 The question is, Did he slip or was he pushed?
 Because, if he slipped, it's all right. But if Jack Dempsey helped him fall, 90,000 people, including the governor, the mayor and Lieut. Gen. Robert Lee Bullard, were then and there misdemeanants in aiding and abetting a fracture of the Jersey statutes in such cases made and provided.

 James F. Clarke, the deputy prosecutor who is presenting the evidence to the grand jury, was at the ringside, but he feels disqualified to say what occurred, as he was bent over, tying his shoe, at the time.
 Several members of the grand jury also were present, but—can't this be the strangest thing?—neither did they see what, if anything, struck Monsieur Carpentier, as they, too, were bent over, tying their shoes.
 Mr. Clarke is very stern about the matter, it being his sworn duty to see justice done, and so also are the grand jurors, for the same reason.

 Clarke and several members of the jury were lured to the ringside to witness a boxing exhibition, not a fight, and if it transpires that the principals double-crossed them and turned the exhibition into a contest, they'll have to throw themselves on the mercy of the court, claiming no intent to aid or abet a misdemeanor.
 Canon William Sheafe Chase, of Brooklyn, prohibitionist and reformer, who didn't see the fight, was a witness before the grand jury to tell what happened.
 What he said in the jury room is between himself and the grand jury, but he knows all about prizefights because he saw one last year between this Benny Dundee, the middleweight, and Olaf O'Dowd, the bantamweight champion—or somebody.

 The canon is a bit wobbly on ring names and classes. The fight he saw certainly wasn't a boxing exhibition but a brutal contest.
 Why, this Herman Dundee walked up to this What's-his-name and struck him with his clenched fist right on the nose.
 The canon is said to be the author of the new and revised rules of drop the handkerchief, in addition to being one of the most reliable button-button-who's-got-the-button referees in the east, and he has done much to eliminate the element of brutality from both those sports.

 The International Reform Bureau is the agency which is seeking the truth about the events of July 2, in the interests of justice and morality.
 The grand jurors were charged by Justice Francis Swayze of the New Jersey Supreme Court to ascertain whether there was a fight or a boxing exhibition.
 Bel'zing is illegal in Jersey City, but there was a young fellow outside the Grand Jury room who was willing to make you this business proposition: A $10 bill to a Pancho Villa peso that Carpentier fell, and wasn't pushed.

WILBER COOPER AND HANK GOUDY SIGNED BY LIMA

FORCEFUL BATTERY IS OBTAINED TO BEAT WAPAK

HOW LIMA WILL LINE-UP
 Hank Goudy, Boston Nationals, Catcher
 Wilber Cooper, Pittsburgh Nationals, Pitcher
 Billy Southworth, Boston Nationals, Right Field
 Elmer Smith, Cleveland Indians, First Base
 Pinky Pittinger, Boston American, Shortstop
 Frank Gillhooley, Buffalo, International League, Center Field
 Connie Bressnahan, London, Ontario League
 Bust'n Schaffer, London, Ontario League
 Harry Clark, former Milwaukee A. A., Third Base

Wilber Cooper, who is credited with being the cause of Pittsburgh staying up in the National League race and whose pitching was responsible in a big measure for the smoky city team finishing second in the National League pennant race, is announced as the pitcher who will carry the hopes of a Lima victory in the deciding Allen and Auglaize-cos championship game Sunday afternoon.

When the Lima management first sought the Pirate star a week ago at his home in Pittsburgh, he excused himself. However, when Billy Southworth, who was a buddy of Cooper when both played on the Pittsburgh team, appealed to the big hurler he consented to work the game and reported to Southworth at Columbus last Wednesday.

Southworth, interested as much as anyone in Lima winning Sunday's battle hooked Cooper up with Hank Goudy and the three National League stars have been working out at the Columbus ball park the past four days so as to be fit to battle the all-star American League team that the opposition furnishes against the home team tomorrow.

OLD CHIO LEAGUER
 Hank Goudy will be remembered by Lima fans as a member of the old Portsmouth, Ohio, State League club where he played his first professional baseball. He was drafted into the National League by the Boston Nationals where he has been playing for the past six years. Goudy, altho married and exempt from military service, was the first major league ball player to enlist in the world war and was among the first troops that landed in France.
 He was among the individual American soldiers who were decorated by the French government for courageous service. Goudy is one of the best catchers in the major leagues and is expected to stack well against "Butch" Henline, who will catch for the Wapak club.

Cooper, Pittinger, Elmer Smith, Southworth, Gillhooley, Clark, Bressnahan, Schaffer and Goudy will arrive here today so as to be in the pink for tomorrow's struggle. It is understood that Lefty Houtz has arranged with his big league nine to be in Wapak today where they will go thru a practice session on the Red's field.

With hundreds of queries coming in from surrounding towns as far as sixty miles away, in regard to Sunday's game, the home management is preparing to take care of a record breaking crowd. Last Sunday the field was arranged to seat 2500 people and additional seats to the number of 2000 have been erected to handle the attendance that is predicted. Among the visiting delegations will be Jack Rider, sport editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Gates will open at 12:30. The local management will have the Lima team on the field at that time, giving the bugs an opportunity to see Elmer Smith, Goudy and some more of the boys get the distance of the right field fence in their batting practice.

There will be no change in admission prices from the regular season scale of charges which will be field seats 50c and the grand stand seats that have been placed on sale will be the same, 75c.

The first cross-country flight was accomplished in 1912.

VICTORY OVER WAPAK DEPENDS ON THIS HURLER

The hopes of Lima winning over Wapakoneta for the inter-county championship at Murphy-st. ball park Sunday afternoon, depends on the man pictured here. He is Wilber Cooper, pitcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates, whom Manager Bernie Halloran signed Friday night over long distance telephone.

With Cooper comes Hank Goudy, catcher for the Boston Nationals. They were to be joined in Columbus today by Billy Southworth. The three planned to work out Saturday afternoon and start for Lima tonight.

WILBER COOPER

BELLEFONTAINE IS HERE FOR GAME; CENTRAL AWAY

A special Western Ohio Interurban car left Lima shortly before noon Saturday for Bluffton, packed with Central Hi football fans, who were accompanying their team for the game there this afternoon.

Following a short signal practice at College field Friday afternoon, Coach O. J. Detrick announced that his squad was in good shape with the exception of Bernstein, who is suffering from a sprained ankle.

While Central is battling Bluffton at Bluffton, South Hi will be playing the strong Bellefontaine eleven at the new South Hi field. This game will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

Coach Ward Young has announced that his team is in the best of condition and that they fully expect to beat their opponents today. This can only be done by fighting every inch of the way, Young says.

JAMES HAS SPIRIT
 James, captain of the Central Hi basketball squad, who was recently transferred to South, will probably be in the South line-up today. He has attended two practice sessions and Coach Young is pleased with the attitude of the newcomer.

He hated to leave Central, just as Potter did to leave South, but is buckling down to his new school and surroundings and it is understood he will show the kind of stuff he is made of and help push South to their athletic hopes.

 Fisher, who was transferred with James, played last Saturday against Sidney.

Nebraska Squad Playing In Ohio

CINCINNATI—The Creighton eleven from Omaha, were prepared to give the St. Xavier aggregation something they will remember this afternoon.

The Saints will have "Yohe" Cushing, who has been out of the lineup since the Centre game, due to injuries, back at his old quarterback position.

WAPAK'S PITCHER

GEORGE UHLE

Wapakoneta has a right to be cocky. With such a star as this in their box Sunday, the Lima Independents are going to have to fight every inch of the way to win the inter-county championship.

Miami On March To Cop Honors Of Conference

DAYTON—Whether Coach Little's Miami football team can continue its march toward Ohio conference honors was to be decided here today when Miami and Denison meet in their annual clash.  Both squads, the coaches said, were in good condition, the only regular on either team unable to start being Quarterback Davis, of Miami. Each team was accompanied by a large number of rooters.
